

1. Purpose of Policy

The intent of this policy is to inform students of the conditions under which Tec-NQ may apply a refund. Tec-NQ is committed to providing a clear, easy to understand, fair and transparent refund process.

The purpose to this procedure is to explain the conditions under which Tec-NQ may apply a refund to students. Tec-NQ is committed to providing a clear and easy to understand, fair and transparent refund process to students and potential students. Tec-NQ shall treat all applications for withdrawal or refund in confidence.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all full time apprentices and secondary school students who are enrolled at Tec-NQ.

If the student is continuing study, the Refund and Cancellation Policy included in the signed Acceptance of Enrolment Written Agreement will be honoured and this Refund Policy will not be applicable.

This policy is applied by all relevant administrative, support and management staff members.

3. Policy Statement

Details concerning the scope of Tec-NQ's Refund and Cancellation Policy are to be clearly disseminated to prospective students prior to contractual arrangements being made, this dissemination is in the form of the Student Handbook, Application for Enrolment, Tec-NQ's website, Acceptance of Enrolment Written Agreement and Letter of Offer.

No request for refund will be considered unless the student has completed and submitted Tec-NQ's Refund Request Form, available online at http://www.tecnq.com.au/about-us/policy_procedures/ or by contacting Tec-NQ.

A student may lodge an appeal against any refund decision reached by Tec-NQ in accordance with Tec-NQ's Complaints and Appeals Policy. A student making an appeal also has the right to pursue other legal remedies.

On receipt of the Refund Request Form, the Enrolment Officer will notify the student of the decision within five (5) working days.

This policy, procedure and written agreement between the student and Tec-NQ and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

4. Cooling off period

A fourteen-day (14-day) cooling off period applies for all enrolments. However, this cooling off period is deemed to be waived if the student commences training and/or submits assessment materials during that period. By this action they are deemed to have entered fully into a contract of service provision with Tec-NQ. After this event there is no refund except in exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of Management.
